CALL FOR ENTRIES

CALL FOR ENTRIES - LIBRARY CARD ART CONTEST

Reading is Fun in Broomfield!

The Mamie Doud Eisenhower Public Library and the Broomfield Public Art Committee are excited to announce a Call for Entries for students (K-12) to submit designs for library patron cards that will be printed for distribution in 2015.

The theme for the Library Art Card Contest is Reading is Fun in Broomfield! All student submissions should creatively reflect the theme and adhere to the following submission guidelines.

Submission Guidelines:

- There are three categories: Grades K-5, 6-8 and 9-12.
- Any student residing in Broomfield County is eligible.
- Artwork must be original - no copied or reproduced material is allowed.
- Artwork may be in any medium and be either landscape or portrait orientation, so long as it may be cropped or scaled to the following dimensions for library cards: 2.375" high x 3.625" wide. To work at a larger size: 9.5” high x 14.5” wide.
- Artwork should not be signed - winning designs will be accredited on the library card.
- Artwork must be submitted along with a contest entry form containing the student's name, grade, school, e-mail address and phone number.
- Artwork must be physically delivered to the Mamie Doud Eisenhower Public Library (Administrative Office on the 2nd floor), 3 Community Park Road, Broomfield, CO 80020 NO LATER THAN 4:00 P.M. on Friday, October 31, 2014.
