The 2013 Broomfield Days

Dogs for a Cause

Proceeds from this race will go to supporting Broomfield Crossing Rotary's charitable works

"Race to the Super Bowl" Rules and Reminders

1) All Dogs entered must be checked in at the race registration table.
   Volunteers will be at the registration area to check over the dogs entered to race as well as monitoring racing dogs during the competition.
2) Race Day registration tables:
   Race 1 – registration tables open at 9:00 am and will close at 10:30 am.

   Race 2 –registration tables open at 12:30 pm and will close at 2:00 pm

   Registrations online before September 13th, 2013 are $10/dog

   Entry fees are $15/dog after the 13th and on race day.

   If you are entering 3 or more dogs from the same household the entry fee is $8/dog if paid before September 13th, 2013 or $10/dog on race day.
3) Each dog entered in a race must have a Release person and a Catch person. We possibly will have volunteers available if an extra person is needed for an entrant, but please do not rely on us.
4) Only non - food items will be allowed to encourage the dogs to race. There is no exception to this rule.
5) Toys may be used to encourage dogs to race. No ball throwing of any kind will be allowed, balls may be bounced only. No laser lights are allowed.
6) Dogs must start the race with all paws on the ground behind the start line.
7) The Catch person must stay clearly behind the finish line.
8) The decision of the Race Judging Team is final. This is a fun, non-qualifying race event. Everyone is here to have fun and enjoy the races.
9) This is a small dog race: Dogs must be 30lbs. or smaller

Reminders:

1. No food of any kind is allowed in the race area.
2. Dogs must be leashed until they are at the starting line of their race.
3. During start of each race please be quiet so racing dogs can hear their handlers.
4. Please be considerate and clean up after yourself and your dog. We do not have janitors on hand.

MOST IMPORTANT REMINDER:
HAVE FUN!!
