

THANK YOU

We value your business...

On behalf of the City Council and staff, I thank you for locating your business in Broomfield. We are a collaborative, partnership community, and our continuous effort to meet and exceed your expectations, drives our elected officials and staff to establish lasting relationships with our local businesses.

To further our commitment to the businesses of Broomfield, the City Council has taken recent steps to provide an expanded level of service to the business community. These include the implementation of the Economic Development Strategic Plan that will serve as a road map for economic development success in Broomfield, created an in-house Economic Development Team for a one-stop resource for business expansion and retention, and opening the Business Resource Center for small business and entrepreneurial support.

Broomfield's Economic Development Department, led by Bo Martinez, works closely with our business community to promote the economic vitality of Broomfield by creating and preserving jobs, supporting business growth, and enhancing the City's revenue base through a wide variety of tools and resources.

We encourage you to further your connection to Broomfield by learning about the Broomfield Chamber of Commerce, signing up for the city and county newsletter or serving on a board or commission.

We take pride in our beautiful city and all it has to offer and we are pleased that we can count you among those who have invested in Broomfield!

Sincerely,
