WELCOME

Welcome Home!

Broomfield is a city of unique and great neighborhoods. The "hometown" feel they create spills over everywhere in town. Housing opportunities run the gamut from affordable starter homes to executive, mid-level upscale custom homes, townhomes and condos, to high-end apartments and affordable rentals. For a list of realtors in our area, please go to: www.broomfieldchamber.com

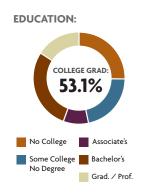

Education

There are exceptional school systems, with both public and private offerings, that combine the latest in education's creative and innovative teaching methods. Higher education is nearby - University of Colorado at Boulder and Denver, Metro State College and Front Range Community College, Colorado School of Mines and Rocky Mountain College of Art & Design. Transportation

"Easy to connect", and "right in the middle of it all"are phrases heard often about Broomfield. Nestled between I-25 on the east and US 36 Creative Corridor on the west with the Northwest Parkway tollroad to the north. With DIA only 30 mins away, our transportation systems make getting to and from easy. Improvements are underway to bring rapid transit to both US 36 and I-25. Stay up to date by signing up for transit information at www.36commutingsolutions.org!
